

Gayle and Harvey's Family

By Gayle

Gayle and Harvey Davis had two sons. Both of them have specialized in school photography and have successful businesses. Landy's firm is "Portrait Makers", located in Cary, NC and Lee's is "Classic Images", located in Goldsboro, NC. Both are active in Methodist churches in their localities. They were born in Goldsboro and in their early years, worked at Walnut Creek Country Club in the pro shop and on the maintenance crew. Both later worked for Strawbridge Studios in Durham where they became accomplished photographers.

The oldest son, Landy, (Harvey Landis Davis, Jr.) started school in Goldsboro at William Street School where he had to call his father, who was the principal, "Mr. Davis." It was when he was in high school he worked in the pro shop at Walnut Creek and developed his love for the game of golf. While he worked with the Strawbridge firm, he traveled to many cities to take pictures. During his travels he met Donna McCorkle, a school secretary and married her in 1990. The two of them operate Portrait Makers out of their home in Cary. They have two daughters, Kelsey and Kailey, born in 1992 and 1998. Landy has developed many friends both in Goldsboro and Cary and particularly enjoys the time he and his family spend at their Emerald Isle condominium on the coast.

Lee, (Lee Flanagan Davis) also started school in Goldsboro. After high school he served four years in the U. S. Air Force on the west coast and began his photography career in Goldsboro when he was discharged. He has opened his photo studio, Classic Images, in downtown Goldsboro and does sports, day care, and bridal pictures as well as school pictures. Lee married JoAnn Walker, a registered nurse from Mount Olive in 1996. They have two sons, Walker and John born in 2000 and 2002; and a daughter, Adrianna born in 2004. Lee has two other children, Leslie and Lee, by a previous marriage. They were born in 1983 and 1990. Lee is active in the local YMCA as a leader in the Indian Guides and in various sports activities. JoAnn helps with the photography and finds time to continue to work as a nurse with the hospital system. Lee lives in Goldsboro in the house Harvey and Gayle built when he was five years old.
